

Greek Language Services

Greek Language Services Agency

Our company was established in 2001 in Paris. Since then we have collaborated with numerous companies and international agencies and worked in many specialist areas. In 2005 our activities were transferred to Athens in order to meet the increasing demands of the local and international markets.

We provide our clients with specialised language services in almost all technical fields including cosmetics/medicine, military/defence and the armaments industry in particular, where we are able to make use of our vast expertise and knowledge in these areas.

WHY US?

Certifications

We are certified by the Greek government to issue official/certified translations, which are accepted by all Greek authorities. Our company also applies the ISO 9001/2008 standards and the European Quality Standard EN 15038 for translation services.

We support all languages, meet all our deadlines and we offer:

- Experienced translators working into their mother-tongue
- Competitive prices and quality work
- Translation of your technical, business and legal documents
- Interpretation from booth or consecutive
- Websites and software localisation
- Subtitling and voice-over

Our Commitment

We are a service provider with integrity and a sincere commitment to customer satisfaction. Always at your service through our e-mail and mobile phones: once a deadline is agreed, we never miss it.

We aim to provide high quality language services, so we collaborate with high-level professionals and use cutting-edge translation tools. All our collaborators are highly qualified, hold university degrees and always work into their mother tongue.

Confidentiality

If you have confidential and/or sensitive corporate material to translate, your security and peace of mind is paramount to us. Special arrangements can always be made and we will gladly sign confidentiality agreement with you.
